RALEIGH, NC, OCTOBER 25, 2012 — CapStone Bank (the “Bank”) named veteran banker Jeannie Hulmes vice president and branch manager for the Bank’s new full service Cary location, announced Eddie Campbell, senior vice president and Cary city executive.

“Jeannie is an accomplished banker and I’m pleased she is joining our team,” commented Campbell. “She has a passion for customer service and extensive leadership experience, which are critical components for the success of our new full service location.”

In this role, Hulmes will oversee the administration and daily operation of the Cary location. This includes serving the deposit and lending needs of customers as well as promoting a sales and service culture through coaching, guiding, and motivating staff.

Prior to joining CapStone Bank, Hulmes most recently worked at Wells Fargo, preceded by an 18-year career with Bank of America. While at Bank of America she earned several awards including the Neighborhood Champions Program award, the Award of Excellence, and the Banking Center Balanced Performer Award. An alumna of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in economics and finance. She serves the community by volunteering her time as a board member for the Miss Garner Scholarship Pageant and teaching Economics for Success as a Junior Achievement Volunteer.

CapStone Bank’s full service Cary location is scheduled to open by year-end and will be located at 2000 Regency Parkway, Suite 150.
