Thomas Andrew Scott Joins
CapStone Bank
Management Team

CAPSTONE
BANK

Raleigh, NC – Steven Ogburn, President and CEO of CapStone Bank, announced that Thomas Andrew Scott has joined the management team at CapStone Bank as Assistant Vice President and Business Development Officer. Scott joins the bank with extensive banking experience in various capacities, including a position as a market executive and a project coordination manager.

Scott's primary responsibilities will include commercial and small business lending, treasury management and providing private banking financial advice including mortgage and consumer loans.

"We are very pleased to have Thomas join our management team," said Ogburn. "His strong background in business development, financial service sales and management consulting will reflect in the development of our business and he will prove to be a great addition to the CapStone Bank team."

Scott is a native of Maryland and holds a B.S. in business administration from UNC Chapel Hill.
