Cash Management Veteran Natalie Valchar Joins CapStone Bank

RALEIGH, NC, May 5, 2010 — Rex M. Scott, senior vice president and chief operations officer, has announced that Natalie Valchar has joined CapStone Bank as vice president of cash management services.

“We are extremely pleased to have Natalie leading our cash management efforts,” said Scott. “We look forward to her working directly with our Business Development Team in assisting them with successfully identifying client needs with respect to on-line banking, remote deposit, ACH and wire origination, positive pay and our many other business oriented services. Natalie will also be responsible for the sale and implementation of a new healthcare remittance solution CapStone is offering to the medical community”, added Scott.

Valchar brings to the position over sixteen years of experience in selling and supporting cash and Treasury Management services. Prior to joining CapStone, she served as the Triangle Market Executive with the search firm of Kenan Soper Bryant and held Treasury Management positions with Wachovia and SouthTrust. A graduate of The University of the South, Valchar earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics.
